

E-commerce Terms

These terms apply to all online course purchases. By placing an order, you confirm acceptance of these terms and responsibility for the payment method used.

Prices shown include VAT where applicable. Payments are securely processed. Course access is granted immediately after successful payment.

Courses are delivered online, allowing learners to complete lessons, assessments and certification modules at their own pace.

Refunds are available within 14 days if the course has not been accessed. Once accessed, the course is considered used and refunds may not apply.
